(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.—Just after Judge J. A. McDonald of the Circuit Court had convened court this morning, Miss Rosa Well suddenly arose from among the spectators and fired point blank with a revolver at the judge. The bullet missed him. She was disarmed and arrested. She was litigant in a case concerning a disputed inheritance that was tried before Judge McDonald two months ago.

Rosa Well, accompanied by her older sister, Clara Well, entered the courtroom a few minutes before court convened and quietly took seats on the second spectators' bench back of the railing. Their appearance attracted no attention, and they sat quietly watching the proceedings of Judge McDonald, who entered from his private chamber and took his seat on the bench.

Motions were offered in a pending case, and an attorney had started to address the court when Rosa Well, without warning, stood up with a leveled revolver and fired at Judge McDonald.

F. T. Wetzel, a witness, sitting near the judge, seized her before she could fire a second time, and several other persons near by sprang to the woman and wrestled the revolver from her hand. She maintained remarkable composure, and said, in a calm tone: "I ought to have got him."

Deputy Sheriff Frank Burns took both women into custody. Judge McDonald did not rise from his seat during the excitement. "Take the two women out of the courtroom," he said to Deputy Sheriff Burns, and when the women had been led from the room and order restored, the judge turned to several attorneys who were waiting their motions, and said: "Proceed, gentlemen."

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Fourth Vice-President Wilson of the International Association of Machinists came to New York yesterday and had a conference with the local officers as to what had been done during the last year. After the conference, Wilson said that there had been more advances of wages and fewer strikes than in any preceding year.

"Advances in wages," he said, "have been received by 11,000 machinists throughout the country this year without strikes, which will aggregate $2,000,000 a year in wage advances. The advances were principally on the part of the railroad companies, but there has been a general tendency to advance wages. The year has shown more advances and fewer strikes than any other year and has been generally prosperous."

A referendum vote will be taken about February 3 on the question of holding an international convention this year. If the vote is for the convention, which will be held in St. Louis, the question of a general eight-hour day will be taken up. If there is no convention this year, the eight-hour question will remain in abeyance.

OMAHA (Nebr.), Jan. 3.—A. L. Mohler, vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific Railroad, in an interview with reference to the announcement of Grand Master Hannan of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen that the strike will be extended to other lines than the Atlantic system of the Southern Pacific Company makes the following statement:

"The proposed strike of firemen on the Union Pacific Railroad in face of a separate agreement made with them in April last, which usually runs for two years, and without any dissatisfaction on their part or desire to leave the service of the company, or any attempt to embarrass the movement of state and interstate traffic, including shipments of fuel supply which are already at their minimum condition, will leave the men without the support of the State and Federal government. A situation already serious will be further extended and intensified by causing untold suffering of innocent people. Why a condition in Texas, which is incomprehensible and perfectly unjustified, should be the purpose of the whole thing is a resort to extreme measures of punishment to accomplish their purpose."

GOLDFIELD MINERS OBSTINATE.
REFUSE NEW PROPOSITIONS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

GOLDFIELD, Jan. 3.—The miners' union on mass met last evening and voted to lay on the table the mine operators' proposition for a new schedule of wages.

This means that no further action will be taken until the next meeting, Thursday evening. It is generally considered a death blow in the first skirmish. It is said that neither side thought the proposition would be accepted as the offer is lower than that made by the miners' board before the strike commenced. Why it was advanced is known only to those on the arbitration committee. Public opinion has changed and believes the strike will be prolonged. The miners are quiet and apparently willing to wait. The big operators find it advisable to remain closed. The leaders and small mine owners are becoming restless and threaten to start on a new schedule.

STRIKE LEADER INCITES RIOT.
THREE ARRESTED IN ONE NIGHT.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

FORTLAND (Or.), Jan. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] P. P. Fisher, president of local Street Car Union No. 181, which is on strike for more pay and other concessions from the Portland Railway, Light and Power Company, was arrested twice last night and released each time. The charge was inciting a riot.

On his second arrest, ten strikers were taken to the Police station in the patrol wagon with Fisher. The strikers gathered on the street and hurled epithets at carmen. "Scabs, rats, big stuff," were some of the names called to the men. The trouble-makers were collecting a mob prepared to further and more hostile demonstrations when the police arrived and scattered them, arresting the leader. The scene was repeated later at night.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A conspiracy to poison bread has been discovered in connection with the strike of kosher bakers, and four men alleged to be members of the union have been arrested, charged with putting acid on hundreds of loaves distributed among Jewish residents of the Ghetto.

The acid and quantities of iodine were thrown on wagonloads of bread and rolls after they had left the bakeries where the strike is on.

The police have confiscated many baskets of poisoned bread, and are holding them for evidence. In the pockets of the four men arrested were found bottles of carbolic acid and packages of powdered iodine form.

of Miss Well, the deceased daughter of the late August Well. The grandmother sought to deprive the boy of his share in the inheritance by raising a question as to the legitimacy of his birth.

Will Work With Americans to Still Further Limit the Scope of Wild-Cat Speculators—Safety to Capital Placed in Southern Republic Is Guaranteed.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
DENVER, Jan. 2.—Secretary James Galbreath, Jr., of the American Mining Congress has received word from A. G. Canallin, director-general of the International Bureau of Finance of Mexico, stating that the Mexican association has agreed to the alliance offered them where the American and Mexican associations undertake to work together in helping investors from either country get complete information about mining investments.

Under the agreement, any Mexican capital seeking investment in America will be directed to the American Mining Congress for information and in like manner the Mining Congress will direct American capital to the Mexican association, if any investor comes to its attention.

One of the objects of this movement is to still further limit the scope of the wild-cat speculator.

The Mexican association guarantees safety to capital invested in its public, and in so far as possible, the American Mining Congress will do the same.

According to Galbreath, American capital in Mexico is much more safe than in America. He says the Mexican mining laws are much more liberal in treatment of mining capital, yet they protect the rights of capital much more effectively than do the Americans. The congress hopes by introducing Mexican ideas in mining into this country, gradually to make the American system as effective as the Mexican.

TAFT THANKS HARRIMAN.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Secretary of War Taft, as president of the American National Red Cross today sent a telegram addressed to E. H. Harriman, executive officer of the Union Pacific Railway in New York City, accepting his offer of free services of the San Francisco and Portland steamship lines for the transportation of supplies to Shanghai and Hongkong for the famine sufferers of China, and thanking him on behalf of the Red Cross Society for the offer.

The Red Cross Society, which through its branches and other agencies is making every effort to obtain sufficient contributions of money and foodstuffs to make up the cargo for shipment to China at an early date, calculate that from $100,000 to $150,000 will be required to purchase such cargo.

The rumored sympathetic strike of the switchmen of the Southern Pacific Company failed to materialize at New Orleans yesterday. The striking firemen here continue silent and have given no intimation of their plans.

Swings Into Its Second Day

January is by far the greatest merchandising month of the year, restoring stocks to system and order after a great holiday trade.

Inventory proved many lines to be out of balance, of some too few, others too many. Stocks must be adjusted quickly, all broken lines are to be hurried out at decisively cut prices. Then as a supplement we've planned several great trade sales. Read this advertisement carefully. It holds good news. Watch for other announcements that will follow. Some lots are too small to advertise. You'll find these spread out on tables along with other splendid values. Every unit of the store's organization is keyed to highest pitch to make January a banner shopping month for you.

IMPORTANT

Other papers contain news of further savings, the result of the January Clearance now in every department. Your money will go further if you trade at the Broadway during January.

CHANGE WEIGHT
WHEN SHAKEN.OLAN THINKS HE HAS UPSET
LAW OF GRAVITATION.

Swedish Civil Engineer Claims
He Made the Discovery Four Years Ago in America That Magnetic Forces Alone Attract Bodies—Scientists Skeptical.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BERLIN, Jan. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The scientific world is not yet prepared to admit that Newton's law of gravitation has been undermined by the Swedish civil engineer, Olan Olan, who claims to have discovered that magnetic forces alone attract bodies.

After his return to Sweden, Olan continued his observations, and before a number of professors of Stockholm University he apparently demonstrated that many bodies get heavier and others lighter after the shaking process, and that they regain their ordinary weight after the lapse of half an hour.

The weighing scale, however, must have solid connection with the earth, which explains why the discovery was not made before.

Olan thinks the explanation of the supposed change is that the law of gravitation does not exist and that magnetic forces alone attract bodies.
The remarkable feature is that changes in weight vary according to the direction in which the bodies are shaken.

John T. Deering was named by Mayor McClellan of New York yesterday to succeed John R. Voorhis as president of the Board of Elections.
In announcing the appointment the Mayor threw down the gauntlet to Tammany Hall and its leader, Charles Murphy. He declared he could not recognize the control of Tammany or tolerate any relations with its leaders.

The French Ambassador, M. Barre, received the members of the French colony at Rome, New Year's day. He delivered an address in which he mentioned the growing friendship of Italy to Russia, but made no allusion to Italian sympathy with France in her church troubles. The fact that he made no allusion to this trouble is deemed significant as such an allusion would be interpreted as encouragement to the Socialists and Republicans in Italy to follow France's lead in separating church and state. The government is striving to prevent such action.

Dr. Motono, the Japanese Minister to Russia, was quoted yesterday at Paris, as insisting that the alarming reports of the state of the Russian Japanese negotiations regarding the fisheries, navigation and other questions are not warranted. He denied that Japan had made excessive demands.

A thousand Turkish soldiers, the remnant of about 4000 sent to the Nojd Peninsula two years ago to suppress the Arab revolt, have returned to Bureh, Asiatic Turkey, in a deplorable condition. Over two thousand of their comrades died of a disease or starvation and the rest deserted.

TWO THOUSAND
ARE HOMELESS.FIRE IN NEW YORK DESTROYS HOUSES AND HORSES.

Twelve Persons Are Injured in Fierce Morning Blaze—Thieves Begin Looting Right and Left and Police With Difficulty Control the Lawless Element.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—A dozen persons were injured, forty families were made homeless and two thousand persons were driven temporarily from their homes, fifty horses were roasted to death and property valued at $200, 000 was destroyed today in the worst early morning fire New York has seen in many months.

One big tenement house at No. 427
West Fifty-third street and a large boarding stable at Nos. 423-425 West Fifty-third street were destroyed. Seven tenement houses at Nos. 426-428
West Fifty-third street and Nos. 427 and 429 West Fifty-fourth street were damaged.

Lack of adequate water pressure is said to have been largely responsible for the extent of the fire. Had not one of the big fire boats which drew its water supply from the Hudson River come to the rescue the loss must have been much greater.

One of the worst features of the fire was the tremendous crowd which gathered in the streets around the burning district and the attendant disorder and lawlessness. So great was the crowd that all the police who had been called to the scene had difficulty in preserving anything like order in the streets and for a time thieves were given almost a free hand to loot the burning buildings.

Police men who had detected six young men acting suspiciously in a house chased them over the roofs down to Tenth avenue, firing several shots at them, but all succeeded in getting away.

Another incident came when a woman among the spectators screamed that three negroes had tried to rob her.
One negro was seen running away from her and a group of white men gave chase, firing at the fugitive as he ran. After a chase of several blocks two detectives joined the pursuers and they too began to fire at the fleeing negro. None of the shots took effect, but the negro finally gave up and was hustled to a police station.

COUTTS FORTUNE TO SPOUSE.
LONDON, Jan. 2.—The Daily Mail quotes a friend of late Lady Burdett Coutts as saying that the bulk of her great fortune will go to her husband, and that it is unlikely that her will contains large bequests to charity.

GLIDDEN MEETS DIAZ.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 2.—

Charles J. Glidden of Boston, who is touring the world in an automobile, and whose machine was wrecked yesterday after having traveled without mishap from Boston to within fifty miles of Mexico City, was today presented to President Diaz by United States Ambassador Thompson. Glidden bore greetings from President Roosevelt to President Diaz.

FLASHES FROM WIRES.
The American Shipbuilding Company
at Cleveland has granted a general increase in wages of 5 to 10 per cent.
to all its employees at all points on the lakes. This will affect all yards, and will mean an increase of at least $750,000 in the annual pay rolls of the company.

Fire at Quebec last night destroyed the beef store room of W. A. Marsh, the Dominion Shoe Factory, Mill & Lockwell's cigar factory and three private residences. Loss $100,000.
Two terrorists shot and killed two gendarmes on Granibella street at Warsaw, yesterday, and fled. Soldiers started in pursuit and opened fire on the fugitives. The bullets went wild and wounded four pedestrians.

The employees of the Bulgarian state railroads have gone on a strike because of the refusal of their demands for increased wages. The government has taken prompt measures to insure the continuance of traffic, and will use military locomotive drivers to this end.
Gen. Booth, head of the Salvation Army, will start about the middle of February on his tour of the world.
He will go to New York, thence to Canada, and will embark from Seattle for Japan, April 2. The remainder of his itinerary has not yet been planned. Gen. Booth says it is the last trip of the kind he will make.

SNOW NEARLY TEN INCHES DEEP NEAR ALPINE TAVERN.

Tourists finding all the delights of winter sports at home, within sight of Los Angeles.

There has been ten inches deep on the hills and trails near Alpine Tavern and the summit of Mt. Lowe. The strong wind has drifted the snow down the mountain range there.

are banks of it sufficiently deep to bury a horse. Tourists are flocking to the mountain by the hundreds. Yesterday more than 150 visitors registered at Alpine Tavern and not 5 per cent. of them were Californians. The great majority of them were persons who recently arrived from the snow country and to whom the sight of deep snow is no novelty. Old men and boys, old women and girls spent the day in winter sports such as are possible only where snow falls.

Telephoning from a Train.

From a train running twenty miles an hour on the Louisville and Nashville, some sixty-five miles east of Louisville, telephone messages were sent one day recently with as much facility and distinctness as from a phone in a private residence. Connection was made through Louisville with New York City, but heavy weather in the East prevented best results. Messages to Louisville, Cincinnati and other points were sent, however, with great success.

For the test wires were stretched at the side of the track, connection was had with this through a trolley arrangement on the pilot of the engine. The circuit was completed through the use of chemicalized steam.

Why She Was Mad.

"Mame is so mad about the present Maud gave her that I know she would give anything if she could send it back."

"Why, what is the matter with it?"

"You see, Mame was sure it was a cheap bargain for about a dollar forty-nine, so she went to the shop it came from and priced the things just like it, and wasn't it, mean, just?"

"What? The present?"

"No, the price; it cost twelve dollars."

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Costs Nothing To Try.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

HOT REPORT BY GRAND JURY.

HITS ORANGE COUNTY OFFICERS SOME SAD WHACKS.

Schools Unsanitary, Roads Bad, Sugar Factory Dangerous—Whole Orange County Family Nearly Dies from Poisoning—Newport Beach Escapes Final Incorporation. With Los Angeles District.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 2.—The grand jury, which last afternoon made a report to Superior Judge E. B. Fox, and was discharged, scored a number of conditions in the county. It mentioned no names, but the reports fall heavily upon some school trustees, some supervisors and some sugar growers and the Alamitos sugar factory.

The jury reported that numerous county schools have poor toilet facilities, and the children are forced to sit up with conditions which are unsanitary, gross and brutal. A number of the larger schools need new partitions, and better facilities for getting the children out of the schools.

The jury recommends the use of oil in the schools. It states that with modern methods there is no excuse for bad roads, and the time has come when the county that fails to keep up its roads will lose caste. The jury found many roads to be in a state of disrepair, and it has recommended that the county should have a road law.

The jury also reported that the Los Alamitos sugar factory is a dangerous place, and that the children who work there are in a state of starvation. The jury has recommended that the factory should be closed, and that the children should be removed from the factory.

The jury also reported that the Newport Beach family was nearly killed by a fire. The fire started in a kitchen, and spread to the living room, where it killed a man and a woman. The jury has recommended that the fire should be investigated, and that the family should be compensated.

RUSH CLAIMS TO BUILD CITY.

CARITISTS GOBBLE QUARRIES FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

Building Stone, Marble, Cement and Clay Tracts Filled Upon, Oil Lands Also Taken Under Claim. Crescent Valley Railway Masks the Salt Lake Road.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 2.—L. S. Quinby of No. 35 Seventh street, San Francisco, left for home tonight after several days' stay in the Silver Mountain Mining District, where he superintended the construction of a road, building stone, cement-rock, marble and clay, a small army of prospectors staking out these claims, which were filed for record this morning.

It is understood Quinby represents San Francisco and Oakland capitalists who propose to expend considerable money installing a cement plant and opening up quarries to get out materials for the rebuilding of the city. The plan is to build a road from the city to the mountains, and then to build a road from the mountains to the city.

Quinby's claims together with filings on 25,000 acres of oil lands by A. M. Hamilton of Los Angeles, netted the recorder's office fees amounting to $500. Hamilton's claims are for oil lands, and are for a large tract of land in the mountains.

The opinion is growing that the "Crescent City Railroad Company," which was recently incorporated by Oakland capitalists, is in reality a Salt Lake venture, undertaken ostensibly to construct an independent railroad from the proposed Sky Blue cement works near Highgrove to connect with the Southern Pacific at Bloomington. The Santa Fe at Rialto and the Salt Lake at Highgrove, but really to steal a march into the orange sections of this valley.

Color is given this opinion from the fact that the agents securing rights of way have not stopped at Rialto, but are seeking a continuation of the right of way through the colony and northward. It looks very much as if the Salt Lake is headed directly at the Yosemite Valley, and if the line is built there will be in a position to obtain an easy grade across the mountains, going east.

The big sale of lands in the Yosemite Valley last week is accounted for in connection with this plan. It is believed that the purchasers are persons who have obtained advanced information. At Redlands the report is current that Salt Lake officials themselves are very much interested in that deal.

Work on the "Crescent City Railroad" is progressing rapidly from Riverside. Lewis Lundwall, an ex-member of the Swedish navy, and more recently of Dewey's squadron, is in charge of the work. He is a man of great energy, and is doing a great deal of work.

Lundwall obtained his discharge from the Swedish navy to enlist with Uncle Sam's sea fighting force at the outbreak of the Spanish war. He was assigned to Dewey's squadron, and was a member of the crew of the USS Albatross.

When the end of the war brought the dull routine of peace Lundwall looked for more stirring employment. He received his honorable discharge, and no other war threatening he went to New York and later entered the Russian-Japanese conflict aboard a Japanese man-of-war.

Peace again set him adrift and coming to the United States he sought employment among the Nevada mining camps. Two weeks ago he put in a supply of whiskey enough to furnish a boot, and started out for Ludlow from Tonopah. Before quarter of the day he was at the mine, and was wrestling with sea monsters.

Coroner Pittman has just returned from the funeral of Lundwall, who was buried by the miners at Ludlow, during a blizzard. The funeral was a very simple one, and was held in a small church.

BUSINESS MEN MEET. The business men of Southern California held a convention here today, under the auspices of the San Bernardino Merchants' Protective Association and the Board of Trade. In the morning there was a conference of secretaries, and at 2 o'clock the convention opened in the Masonic Temple, discussion centering upon the work of the various business men's associations, and plans for a closer affiliation of all the associations south of the Tehachas.

The annual closed session with the convention closed this evening with a banquet in the Masonic Temple.

FEAR FOR FISHERMEN. Four of Them Missing Since Last Big Storm and Others Have a Narrow Escape. SAN DIEGO, Jan. 2.—Fears are entertained for four fishermen who have been out from this port since Monday morning, having gone out before the severe winter storm, which came up about 10:30 o'clock. They went from here south along the coast of Lower California, where there is little chance of protection from the storm.

The missing men are E. Larson of the Bonita, J. Eaton of the Ethel B. Bob Israel of the America, and M. Lutz. The four men are from the American Fish Company, and the last for the Union Fish Company. With good weather they should have been back by Tuesday morning, but none of them had put in an appearance this forenoon.

Several other fishermen who had gone out to the fishing grounds had narrow escapes. M. F. Cabal was saved only by running up a distress signal which the government steamer General De Russay answered.

On the steamer St. Denis, Deputy Sheriff Kerr went to Escondido with regulation papers for Capt. W. A. Hall. He should return Friday morning. Capt. Hall will face the charge of abducting the 12-year-old daughter of Marco Bennis. The girl has not been found, but with Mrs. Emma Howland and two men, is supposed to be on board the schooner Rover, somewhere down the coast.

When the end of the war brought the dull routine of peace Lundwall looked for more stirring employment. He received his honorable discharge, and no other war threatening he went to New York and later entered the Russian-Japanese conflict aboard a Japanese man-of-war.

Peace again set him adrift and coming to the United States he sought employment among the Nevada mining camps. Two weeks ago he put in a supply of whiskey enough to furnish a boot, and started out for Ludlow from Tonopah. Before quarter of the day he was at the mine, and was wrestling with sea monsters.

Coroner Pittman has just returned from the funeral of Lundwall, who was buried by the miners at Ludlow, during a blizzard. The funeral was a very simple one, and was held in a small church.

BUSINESS MEN MEET. The business men of Southern California held a convention here today, under the auspices of the San Bernardino Merchants' Protective Association and the Board of Trade. In the morning there was a conference of secretaries, and at 2 o'clock the convention opened in the Masonic Temple, discussion centering upon the work of the various business men's associations, and plans for a closer affiliation of all the associations south of the Tehachas.

The annual closed session with the convention closed this evening with a banquet in the Masonic Temple.

FEAR FOR FISHERMEN. Four of Them Missing Since Last Big Storm and Others Have a Narrow Escape. SAN DIEGO, Jan. 2.—Fears are entertained for four fishermen who have been out from this port since Monday morning, having gone out before the severe winter storm, which came up about 10:30 o'clock. They went from here south along the coast of Lower California, where there is little chance of protection from the storm.

The missing men are E. Larson of the Bonita, J. Eaton of the Ethel B. Bob Israel of the America, and M. Lutz. The four men are from the American Fish Company, and the last for the Union Fish Company. With good weather they should have been back by Tuesday morning, but none of them had put in an appearance this forenoon.

Several other fishermen who had gone out to the fishing grounds had narrow escapes. M. F. Cabal was saved only by running up a distress signal which the government steamer General De Russay answered.

On the steamer St. Denis, Deputy Sheriff Kerr went to Escondido with regulation papers for Capt. W. A. Hall. He should return Friday morning. Capt. Hall will face the charge of abducting the 12-year-old daughter of Marco Bennis. The girl has not been found, but with Mrs. Emma Howland and two men, is supposed to be on board the schooner Rover, somewhere down the coast.

Essential

A proper examination is the first essential. It is the foundation to a cure. It is the only way to get started right. It leads to cures with positive assurance. I make definite claims for my method of treatment.

Decline of functional activity, strength and vitality is nearly always traceable to a disturbance of the functions of the reproductive system. Under my treatment functional equilibrium is restored, the nerve irritation reduced, the circulation is increased, and strength renewed. My cures are absolute and permanent. AWFUL DEED OF JEALOUS BAKER.

Downey the Scene of Another Bloody Tragedy.

Conrad Rausch Kills Wife.
Then Takes Poison.

Crime Carefully Planned and Brutally Executed.

Lying on a slab in the little undertaking establishment at Downey is the body of Mrs. Minnie Rausch, victim of murder committed by her husband some time during New Year's night. On a slab near by lies the body of Conrad Rausch, husband of Minnie Rausch, and victim of poison, self-administered, after he had finished his bloody work.

Once again the village of Downey, made notable some years ago by infamous murder of the Wilcox family, became the scene of a violent crime—one of the most revolting murders and suicides which has occurred in any of the smaller towns of Los Angeles county.

Drink and insane jealousy are supposed to be the inspiring causes. Conrad Rausch was the town baker. He went from Los Angeles to Downey about two years ago, with his wife and two children, Mary, now aged 11, and Minnie, now aged 12. Rausch purchased a bakery building, located in one of the smart buildings on First street, and the family made their home in rooms adjoining the bakery.

Rausch was given to drinking, and it is said he loved to gamble, so that there were occasional quarrels between him and his wife. It was on the night of New Year's that Mrs. Rausch was capable of enforcing her protestations with covered demonstrations which were of much vigor.

The baker had developed an almost insane jealousy over his attractive wife, who was 30 years of age, bright and sprightly. The neighbors declare, however, that there was not the least foundation for Rausch's jealousy, and that the baker's wife was always the model of domestic behavior.

On New Year's Day Rausch sent his youngest daughter to Los Angeles to join the eldest girl, who was spending the week with friends near the park. It is now believed that the plan for the murder was even then formed, and that the baker intended to get away so that his designs might not be frustrated.

During the day Rausch was practically morose, and when pressed for an explanation of his morose condition by friends, he refused to talk. Between 1 and 2 o'clock Rausch went to the Hull pharmacy and purchased 15 cents' worth of strychnine, saying that he wanted the poison to kill rats at the bakery.

The last seen of Rausch on New Year's night was about 10 o'clock, when he was seen leaving the bakery, joining the delivery, and asked for Edward Blison, who drives his delivery wagon, and who sleeps at the stable. Rausch was seen for the last time as he left the bakery, and his absence probably saved his life, as later developments indicate that he would doubtless have attempted to murder his wife.

Early yesterday morning Blison went to the bakery, as was his usual custom, to load the morning delivery. The door of the bakery, however, had been left unlocked so that he could enter. He performed his usual work, and assisted a drayman to load a lot of flour which was to be exchanged, before he became alarmed over the absence of his wife. When he was called to the door, he found the body of his wife lying on the floor, and he called to her to get up. Receiving no response, he pushed open the bedroom door, and saw his wife lying on the floor, dead, with his body contorted from the effects of the poison. He did not see the body of Mrs. Rausch at the time, but hurried to the lively stable and gave the alarm.

An investigation was made at once by Constable B. F. Witherspoon and others, and they discovered the horribly mutilated body of Mrs. Rausch lying on the floor, partly under the bed. The woman's head was terribly disfigured. Her skull was crushed over the left temple, and the heavy blow had crushed the cheek bone on the right side of the face. Both blows were evidently inflicted with a heavy blunt instrument, probably a hammer, which was found lying on the kitchen table. From the neck to the waist there were numerous ugly knife wounds, and both arms were covered with black and blue spots, where the woman had been struck. She was unbreathed, having on only her underclothes.

It is probable that Rausch had murdered his wife before he went out to the lively stable to seek his wagon driver, Blison. When the woman's body was found it had been carefully covered with an overcoat and a coat was saturated with blood from her wounds, showing that it must have been placed over the body long before Rausch undressed himself and got into his bed and took the poison.

He wrote a note, in which he declared that he intended to take his life with this end in view. This note, together with the hammer and a long-bladed knife, were found on the kitchen table. Rausch had evidently made an attempt to clean off the knife, with which he had done some terrible execution, but part of the blood still clings to the long pointed blade.

On order of the coroner, the bodies were yesterday afternoon removed to the undertaking establishment of Joseph McKeller in Downey, where the inquest will be held at 3 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Rausch's brother, William Werkhauser, of No. 3134 Central avenue, this city, went to Downey yesterday afternoon to see the body of his sister. He is the only relative of the woman in this country besides her two daughters. He made arrangements for the shipment of his sister's dead body to Colorado Springs, for burial after the inquest.

The Rausch family came to Los Angeles from Colorado. It is said, about six years ago. Rausch worked for some time in various bakeries in this city, and was known as a good workman when he was drinking. He purchased some property here, and there is still in his name a considerable value on Fourteenth street.

Both husband and wife were insured, he in the Woodmen of the World, and she in the Women of Woodcraft, for $2000 each. They were also known to have considerable money in bank and valuable securities, so that there will be ample funds for the care of the two girls who are orphaned.

Edward Blison, who is a bright-faced, clean-cut, young Canadian, yesterday afternoon expressed deep horror over the double tragedy, and great surprise when informed that his name had been connected with that of Mrs. Rausch in the manner indicated by her husband's note.

"Before God," he declared, "there was not the slightest foundation for that man making such accusations. I have never been at the house except when either the girls were there with their mother, or when Rausch was there himself."

"I have known for some time past that they had their quarrels, but I never imagined that anything serious would come of them. They were such differences as many persons have. I know that this woman never gave me any reason for her behavior during the time I have been with them. I worked for them four months."

Blison came to Los Angeles last night with Mrs. Rausch's brother to look after the care of the two orphaned girls, and the statement of the police that the grown-up tragedy's marks were cleared away.

THIEF PRINCE IS "LADDER MAN."

LOOTER OF CHAFFEE HOME IS STILL AT LARGE.

And Police Seem to Have no Clue.
Daring Burglar Proves Himself a Specialist in Crime—Works Out Plans to Minutest Details and Always Succeeds in His Enterprises.

Police detectives from the Central Station and plainclothes men from the University substation worked through residence and lodgings here yesterday in an effort to find the second-story burglar who looted Lieut.-Gen. Adna Chaffee's home of jewels Tuesday night.

The thief, who has four big teeth in his credit, is still as much of a mystery as when he began prying on West Side mansions. Of the several criminals who have worked along the same line in Los Angeles in recent years he is the boldest.

The security of the burglar's methods makes him all the more interesting from a police standpoint, and his success—for in all except one of his expeditions he has secured objects—makes him an object of dread to well-to-do householders.

One thing which has made the police search recently in the residence sections is the fact that the thief must have done much watching before he was able to find out the plan of a second-story job, as such burglaries as that of the Chaffee residence are called, requires more preparation by far than the common night or day prowling of the ordinary criminal.

The ladder thief, to operate successfully, must know something of the plans of the house. He must also know enough about the inmates to be able to tell with some degree of certainty when he can enter the place safely. This knowledge requires much observation. And the watching is done, as a rule, from the outside. The days of household accomplices have practically passed. Such confederates are apt to talk.

The good second-story man sees for himself. To do this takes from four days to a week. The crook watches the dining-room, during the dinner hour, and the living room, just before and after dinner and at the time of retiring. Seeing a member of the family leave the house, he goes to the window and watches for the thief. The thief gets much valuable information. The man who stole the Chaffee jewels had learned the "lay" of the house and had also acquired much information about the neighborhood.

Where and how the man got his rig is something the police have not yet learned, or, if they learned, have not yet given out.

BERKELEY IS BOOMING.
Neither Earthquake Nor Fire Has Much Effect Upon Progress of University of California.

BERKELEY, D. C. 31.—The report of President Benjamin I. Wheeler to the Governor of the State covering the period from July 1, 1919, to June 30, 1920, has been issued. The first portion considers the effect of the April earthquake in San Francisco upon the university. The president states that the financial of the university suffered a severe blow, but that the disaster was a more permanent character. Among these is especially mentioned the apparently irreparable loss in the destruction of the Mark Hopkins Institute of Agriculture, which cost certainly not less than $2,000,000.

President Wheeler calls attention to the fact, however, that the university suffered no loss of students. The number of students, undergraduate and graduate, was 1,000 in 1919-20, and 1,000 in 1920-21. The largest enrollment of students in the history of the university was in 1919-20, when the enrollment was 1,000. A steady drift of students from the state of California, and agriculture is noticeable.

In the course of the report attention is called to the progress of the different departments of the university. The erection and occupation of the new California Hall is prominently mentioned. The administrative offices are now congregated together on the second floor of the hall in convenient relation to one another. This has added to the efficiency of the administration of the university and the convenience of the students.

President Wheeler notes the marked progress in student self-control and self-government during the past year. There has been a notable development of student public opinion in favor of the suppression of hazing, and other outbreaks. The erection of Senior Hall, a building constructed of redwood and the only one of its kind in the country, is doing much to foster this good work. The institution of what is known as the student museum, the student museum in the same direction. The president states that he believes the conjunction of Senior Hall and the student museum will do more to solve the problem of how to create a public opinion among students even than could the dormitory system.

Two new offices have been created during the biennial—that of dean of women and advisor. The former exercising general supervision and care over all that concerns the women students of the university and the latter exercising the same function on behalf of the men.

The high standing and notable success of the department of mining receives special comment. The exhibition of this department at the St. Louis Exposition was awarded the grand prize.

CALLS SELF CATTLE KING

shudder with the chilliness of it. Then Cardillo took to the woods. On the day of departure for Mexico, the little woman whom Cardillo had married in Los Angeles wrote letters to Woolley and to Dr. Edwards, explaining that other business affairs had been unable to go to Mexico with them. Since that time they have seen nothing of him, and he has not returned. But since they got off with nothing more than their individual eyesight and accounts and the intervention of business, they have been disposed to say nothing about their experience.

NEW DEAL CALLED. Recently, however, it has been learned from another source that Cardillo has been trying to interest a party of eastern capitalists in an alleged Sinaloa land proposition. At the same time the Cardillo of the Mexican Central has advised G. C. Archer, representative of the road in California, to see what steps may be taken to prosecute the other for representing himself to be relative of Archer.

He says they can do things in Mexico to people who unceremoniously force themselves into one's family, and so the Cardillo is trying to make his way to the border to "suck" the rurales upon this pseudo relative of his when he may cross the line.

Curious Story of Substitution of Male for Female Infant in Order to Secure Estate.

St. Lawrence had died here on November 23, 1919, and that the report untrue, and yesterday received a letter from Mrs. St. Lawrence, who is in England writing relatives.

But to deceive the father, a male child was secured and substituted, and the estate secured, the infant daughter being taken by a man who was a share of a large English estate. Mrs. St. Lawrence's mother, an English girl, married against the wishes of her father, who disinherited her. He agreed that if the first born was a son, he would give the child his share of the estate. The child proved to be a daughter, who is now Mrs. St. Lawrence.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

One of the most enjoyable affairs given yesterday was the informal dancing party given last evening at the home of Miss Josephine Dillon at the home of her parents, Hon. and Mrs. Henry Dillon, No. 644 Benton boulevard. Miss Dillon is one of the most attractive of the young debutantes, and her evening she entertained some of the most prominent friends of the Stanford University friends. Miss Dillon was a student at Stanford several years ago, and last year attended the college, completing her education with a most instructive and enjoyable trip abroad.

Home was decorated in festive fashion with bright holly and sprays and scarlet ribbons and sprigs of mistletoe here and Alvarado street, and Louis S. Nordlinger plighted their troth before a stately altar of shimmering tulle and Easter lilies, around which was wound soft sprays of asparagus ferns. The nuptial ceremony took place in the parlor on the mezzanine floor of the Alexandria Hotel, and the whole wedding was one of the most brilliant of the season. The parlor was softly lighted with many tiny lights, about which asparagus ferns were wound, and in the bow window at the end of the room an altar of tulle had been built. It consisted of one central arch or alcove of tulle, lined with feathery asparagus ferns, against which pink chrysanthemums were placed in graceful sprays. Easter lilies in pale pink vases swung in here, and on either side were two smaller alcoves, curving in half circular form. From the central arch, a large white dove held a shining lover's knot of white satin ribbon, and also streamers of dainty pink gauze ribbon were festooned from this love knot to the two doves, perched in the two arches on each side. The entire dining-room of the Alexandria was used to serve the wedding party of 175 guests. Here the bride table occupied a central place beneath the canopy of soft asparagus ferns which spread lightly overhead, held here and there by white doves, holding delicate streamers of pink gauze ribbon. This table was a large round one, and over the center were two arches of asparagus ferns and electric lights. Forming a square at the base of this was a bank of feathery asparagus ferns, in whose cool depths sparkled, like so many fairy jewels, hundreds of tiny lights. In the center of this green was a lazy cloth of gauze, with pink rose petals. At each place a basket of lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns, tied with pink gauze ribbons, was placed, completing the handsome effect. Two large tables for the family were on either side, and these contained a great ring of white roses, in pale pink, with maidenhair ferns, while the center was sprinkled with the waxen petals of the same rose. The smaller tables at which guests were seated, were decorated with scarlet carnations and ferns, and red-shaded candelabra. The decorations were all under the direction of Joseph Reichl, who gave evidence of much originality and artistic ability in his carrying out of the scheme.

The bride, who is popular in local society, wore a beautiful robe of white satin trimmed with panels of chiffon, hand embroidered in lovely fashion. The gown was made princess, and her long tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms. In her arms she carried a wonderfully beautiful bouquet of white orchids, lilies of the valley and maidenhair ferns. Her only ornament was a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Herman Levy, who was mistress of honor, wore a handsome frock of white chiffon heavily embroidered in gold, and carried a beautiful bride's train. The bridesmaids included Misses Rosal Seligman, Florence Newman, Rita Jacoby, Clara Jacoby, Irma Jacoby and Rose Germain. They were charmingly gowned in dainty white frocks and carried baskets of pink bridesmaid's flowers. The two flower girls were daintily attired in fluffy white and carried baskets filled with Cecil Bruner roses. They were Elizabeth Levy and Beatrice Jacobs. Melville Nordlinger, brother of the groom, was best man, and the following young men acted as ushers: Messrs. Joe Leck, Leo Meyer, Leo Jacoby, Fred Kramer, Stephen Leow and J. Jacobs. As the bride pair approached the altar, the bride's train was held by the bridesmaids. The wedding march was "Lohengrin," and as Rabbi Hecht read the marriage service, "Call Me Thine Own" was softly played, and Mendelssohn's march was used as the recessional. Later the orchestra furnished music for the merry dance, which wound up the evening's gaiety. Dancing was enjoyed in the large ball room, and here the couples danced to the strains of the orchestra. The bride and groom were combined with exceeding grace. A particularly pretty and unique bit was the old Dutch supper room, where refreshments were served between dances. Here a cuckoo clock hung on the rough brown wall, and a keg of cider was on the counter. Mr. and Mrs. Nordlinger have gone East on their honeymoon, and will be at home with Mrs. Nordlinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nordlinger, at No. 137 West Ninth street.

Klock's New Year's Party. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Klock of No. 300 North Los Robles avenue, Pasadena, entertained with a house party to see the old year out and to enjoy the festivities of the Rose Tournament. The old year was ushered out and the New Year in with a very enjoyable programme of music and elocution, followed by refreshments. The floral Parade was witnessed by all on New Year's morning, and the remainder of the day was spent in games and socialization. Their home was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. The guests were almost all former St. Louisians, now happy residents of Los Angeles and vicinity. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. English, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Path of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Ed-bourn of Pittsburgh; Miss Trix Platt of St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. C. J. Balchazur and two sons, Ben Klock of Pasadena, Misses Cecilia and Rose Feenan, Arthur Feenan, Mrs. Richard Holman, Miss Cecilia Nolan, H. Lewis and G. Lewis of Hollywood.

Neelson's Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nelson of No. 541 Monte Vista street entertained at dinner on New Year's Day. The dining-room was beautifully decorated with pink carnations and amaranth. A very delightful evening was spent with music and games. Miss Wood rendered selections on the metronome, the singing of carols and the making of new resolutions closed the happy day. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Miss Wood, Miss Vella L. Grant of Winnipeg, Man., Canada, Mrs. Spelman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davy, H. Thomas of England and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitford.

Dussault New Year's Party. One of the most enjoyable of New Year's parties was given by Mrs. E. Dussault in honor of her guests at the Chateau Frontenac, No. 722 South Flower street. The house was beautifully decorated with asparagus ferns and holly, making a most effective color scheme of red and green. Music was rendered during the evening by Mrs. H. N. Clark, and vocal selections were given by Mrs. H. Green and others. Later dancing and dancing were enjoyed. New Year's supper was served late in the evening.

Miss Cohen Surprised. Miss Ida Cohen, who has just returned after a three months' visit with friends in St. Louis, Cairo, Ill., and Chicago, was pleasantly surprised on New Year's Eve at her home, No. 145 South Flower street, by her many friends. The evening was spent in playing progressive whist, and prizes were awarded to Miss Bertha Meyers and Miss Anna Ferber. After the games, refreshments were served. All had an enjoyable time. Those present were Emma and Eva Silverstein, Anna and Ethel Levinson, Misses Rosenberg, Anna Ferber, Lena Cohen, Minnie Wolf, Hannah Gutterman, Bertha Meyers, Anna Wengarten and Mr. and Mrs. M. Goldman, Messrs. A. Ferber, A. Silverstein, S. Ross, J. Gutterman, I. Cohen, Mr. Wengarten, L. Cohen, Mr. Levis, Mr. Rosenblum, Mr. Raenky and Gootkin of Des Moines, Iowa, and Sam Amidar of Buffalo.

Phi Rho Sigma Party. One of the prettiest and most enjoyable dances of the season was the New Year's dance of the Phi Rho Sigma Fraternity given on Tuesday evening at Kramer's Hall. A large company of guests enjoyed the brilliant dance, and Dr. Elizabeth Follansbee of the faculty and the following named wives of members of the fraternity acted as patronesses: Misses Walter Lindley, Walter Jarvis Barlow, P. C. H. Pahl, Orlin O. Witherspoon, J. Lee Hagadorn, Randall Hutchinson, Joseph Kurts, George H. Kress and Norman Bridge. The hall was beautifully decorated in holiday fashion with ferns and holly and Christmas bells, and dainty drop lights shed a soft glow. Later a stunner supper was served in the banquet room, which was decorated in charming fashion for the affair.

Notes and Personal. Mrs. Albert H. Busch of No. 2715 Portland street will receive her friends

A Poer. Among the interested visitors of the marine barracks at Washington on occasion there was a party of young girls from a Maryland town, friends of one of the officers of the barracks.

They proved very much interested in everything pertaining to the life and discipline of the post.

"What do you mean by 'taps'?" asked one young woman.

"Taps are played every night on the bugle," answered the officer. "It means 'lights out.' They play it over the bodies of dead soldiers."

Members of the committee on the liquor traffic were called to the fact of the liquor traffic was passed up yesterday by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. A communication from the Municipal League on the subject was read, and action was deferred one week.

"FIXIT" AGAIN "PASSED UP." Citizen Fixit's pet idea about appointing a commission to consider permanent legislation with reference to the liquor traffic was passed up yesterday by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. A communication from the Municipal League on the subject was read, and action was deferred one week.

NOVEL MOTION MADE IN CASE ON TRIAL.

Attorney Claims Before Judge Wellborn That, When Chinaman Is Accused of Being Illegally in This Country, Burden of Proof is Upon Government.

The United States District Court devoted yesterday to the consideration of Chinese deportation cases. A half-dozen Chinamen, who were ordered deported after an examination before Commissioner Van Dyke, appeared before the court, and their cases are now coming up in succession.

Lee Him, an "American" Chinaman who works in Dan Jernie's saloon, was the first to have his case considered. Depositions in the case which had been sent down from Portland, where Lee Him claimed to have been born, were read. After a review of the testimony Judge Wellborn ordered him discharged from custody, as he was satisfied that he really had been born in this country.

The second case was that of Hom See Woon. It was not concluded at the end of the session, and was continued until today.

G. L. McKehey defended both cases. He made a motion which is unique in this court, and one that may have a great bearing on future deportation cases. Following a recent decision by Judge Grosscup in the Circuit Court of Appeal at Chicago, Mr. McKehey moved that as the defendant was a native born, under the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution, the burden of proof was upon the government. Although in almost all suits, the burden of proof is upon the side making the charge, in the case of deportation examinations the Chinaman is charged with being illegally in the country, and must prove his innocence.

If Mr. McKehey's motion is allowed, it will mean that in the case of native-born Chinamen the usual rules of evidence will be followed, and that the government will have to submit all the evidence before the defendant is called on to defend himself.

MAY MAKE THE TRIP.

Favorable Outlook for the Proposed Chamber of Commerce Excursion to Honolulu.

Very favorable indeed is the outlook for the Chamber of Commerce excursion to Hawaii. Although the arrangements have hardly proceeded far enough to warrant canvassing for prospective passengers, the office of Secretary Wiggins has been overwhelmed with inquiries regarding the accommodations.

R. H. Heron, director of the chamber and chairman of the special committee having the excursion in charge, yesterday reported the progress of the work. The committee has taken an option on the vessel Clara, which has a capacity of 100 passengers. Mr. Heron made it a condition of the option that the vessel should sail from San Francisco, in which he was supported by all the members of the committee. The trip as outlined by the committee will last about twenty days, including in that time a visit of about a week at Honolulu. The total expense for the trip as estimated by the committee is $100,000. This includes meals and accommodations.

Many who anticipate going have already handed in their names. The chamber is anxious to have a more complete list before closing the contract.

DEAL INVOLVING MANY MILLIONS.

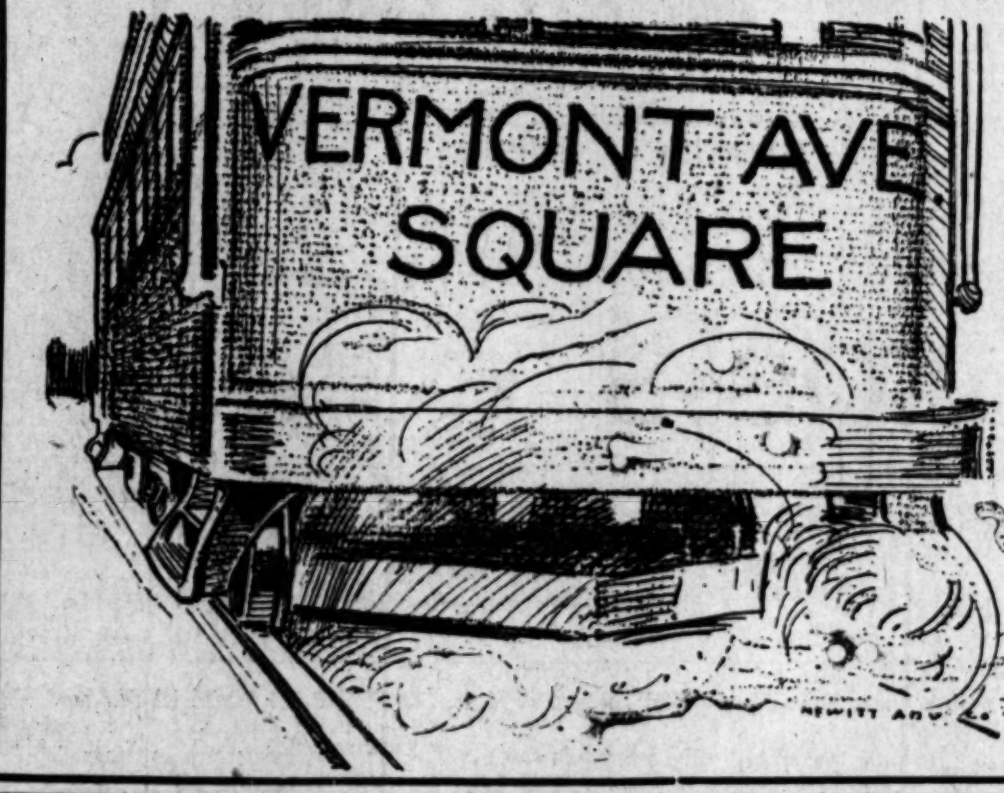

BIGGEST TELEPHONE MERGER IN HISTORY OF THE WEST.

Property of the Sunset and Pacific States Companies Acquired by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company—Thirty-five Millions to Be Expended in Extensions and Improvements.

The close of the year is identified with a transaction of importance which is of particular concern to the business and financial interests of the Pacific Coast. The Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, with their millions of invested capital and thousands of subscribers in Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, California and Arizona have been absorbed and their property taken over by a great corporation, The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. The new corporation has purchased the property of the Pacific States company in California, and has taken under long leases practically all the lines and equipment of the Sunset company and those of the Pacific States company outside of California. The capital of the new corporation has been fixed at $50,000,000, of which $25,000,000 is preferred and $25,000,000 common stock. It is the intention of the company to issue as much as $50,000,000 of the sale of which are to be devoted entirely to improvements and extensions of the company's service. This vast sum will not doubt be available almost immediately by reason of the character of the transaction, as the standing of the directors and the most efficient management, and especially as the recent disaster in San Francisco, involving such tremendous losses, has so emphatically brought home to investors the wisdom of diversified assets as a basis of mortgage security. The arrangement has been perfected with the cooperation of the shareholders of the old companies, having in view the economic advantages and efficiency of management possible under operation by one company.

It is learned that it will be the policy of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, which it is understood, holds the controlling interest in the new coast company, to continue with renewed vigor the policy of improvement initiated prior to the San Francisco disaster of last April, and that such plans will be carried to complete execution requires no further guarantee than the determination of the parent company. In that city alone at the time of the fire the company was providing for the improvement of its lines aggregating $1,000,000. In the main office the installation of the largest multiple switchboard in the business world has been completed under the direction of a large corps of experts from the East. In three days an exchange of 50,000 subscribers, with its costly and intricate appliances, was practically swept from existence, involving the labor of thousands of men and the expenditure of 30,000 miles of underground wires. Before the embers were cool, orders duplicating this vast equipment, were on the files of eastern manufacturers, and although the general prosperity

The Doctor Examined Him and Said His Lungs Were Sound. "Enuf Sed."

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 18, 1906.

Bensonizer Co., Denver, Col.:

Dear Doctor—Your letter received, but have been so busy that I just could not get to yours, for we had the territorial fair here and I was kept very busy day and night.

Well, Doctor, I must tell you I came here a year ago and went to work for the street railway company, first as motorman and then as conductor, and am still holding my job, and am feeling fine and like this climate, for it never gets very cold and hardly ever rains here.

We are all feeling fine; wife and baby doing well, and I have worked every day since I have been here, and sure get enough out-door exercise.

Before I got the job on the cars I had to go before their doctor and be examined, for they wanted to be sure that a man is sound before they hire him. So I had to be examined and present the health certificate to the company, and it read that my lungs were sound and well, and that I could do any ordinary labor, and I got the job and worked every day since. Yes, worked from ten to fifteen hours every day, and am gaining in weight, and am satisfied that your treatment brought me out this way.

I have had several people write me, saying they saw my testimonial in the paper, and asking me how about this; and I am always ready and willing to recommend your treatment very highly, which I did and always will.

Well, how is everything, and how many patients have you now? The last letter I had from home I hear that my sisters are doing well. Will close for this time, and let me hear from you occasionally. Your friend,

METHODIST INSTITUTES. TO COVER THE COUNTRY.

Hugh E. Smith, secretary of the general conference Evangelistic Committee of the Methodist Church, with headquarters in New York, left for the East last night after having spent several weeks with his family in this city. Mr. Smith had a conference with the presiding elders before he left, and they unanimously agreed upon three evangelistic institutes to be held in accordance with the plans of Mr. Smith's committee, but the dates have not yet been definitely fixed. They will be held in this city, at Fresno, and Riverside, and probably in May. Mr. Smith will return to this Coast in April and will hold a series of evangelistic meetings at Riverside, and by that time the dates for the institutes will be determined, and other places agreed upon. The plan is to cover every city of any importance in the United States, bringing the evangelists in personal touch with every Methodist minister and church officer, and the general membership. Meetings will be held in the forenoon for the ministers in the afternoon for the officers and in the evening for the people at large.

UNIVERSALIST PLANS. COAST SUPERINTENDENT HERE.

Dr. C. Elwood Nash of Boston, accompanied by Mrs. Nash and two daughters, arrived here yesterday direct from their eastern home, after having been delayed twenty-four hours en route by washouts on the coast. Dr. Nash comes as the representative of the National Board of the Universalists, and will be their Pacific Coast superintendent in the expansion work they have planned. At present Dr. Nash is the guest of Dr. H. L. Canfield of Pasadena, but he will eventually make his permanent home in this city. He will preach his initial sermon next Sunday morning at Cunnock Hall, No. 1500 South Figueroa street, and every Sunday morning thereafter. Meantime, he will study the situation and lay plans for enlarging the influence of his denomination. There are many persons here who formerly knew him as the successful president of Lombard College in Illinois, or as field secretary of his denomination in New England. Representatives of the Los Angeles parish met the State board in conference on Monday and heard encouraging reports of increased interest, inspired by the coming of Dr. Nash. At the opening service on Sunday morning, Dr. H. L. Canfield will read the greetings of the local parish to Dr. Nash, and Dr. Conger will welcome him to the churches of the State. There will be special music by a quartette under the direction of Mrs. Bryson.

ALLEGED THAT HE IS FORGER.

POLICE AWAIT ARRIVAL OF MAN CAUGHT IN NORTH.

Say He Is Found Masquerading as Secret Service Officer and Is Guilty of Passing Worthless Checks in This City—Is Acquainted With Penitentiary, 'Tis Said.

While masquerading as a United States secret service officer, a man has just been arrested in Portland, for whom the local police have been searching for eighteen months. He is being held subject to Chief of Police Kern's orders, and as soon as the necessary papers are made out an officer will be sent North to get him. The man is known as Edward Jacobson, Ed. N. Blum, and Edward Jacobson, and has borne several other aliases. He is alleged to have a long record as a forger, and it is forger that the local authorities want him. He has also laid himself open to prosecution by the Federal authorities on the charge of impersonating a Federal officer. As the penalty for forgery is the heavier he will be prosecuted on that charge.

Jacobs on December 15 of last year forged. It is said, the name of Leo Youngworth, United States Marshal, to a check on the Bank of Southern California. It was made payable to the order of Ed. N. Blum, and Jacobs is alleged to have passed it on Selmar Magnus of No. 215 South Spring street. Jacobs then bought a ticket to San Francisco and disappeared. He arrived in Bakersfield, and representing himself as a secret service man, passed another check for $100. It is said. He also is alleged to have passed a check in San Rafael, and to have lunched the Pullman company in San Francisco. A real secret service man arrested Jacobs. He was turned over to the Portland police, and they found that he answered the description sent out by Chief of Police Kern. Jacobs is 34 years old, and has served several terms in the penitentiary. He has a son and two married daughters in Oakland. He has been a dry goods salesman.
